Scheduled vs. Non-Scheduled RPO

RPO = System-generated process that looks at the company's sales and forecasts the amount to buy (of a product) based on how much of the product has been sold in accordance to the calculated order points.

- Scheduled
 - Scheduled RPO list contains vendors who are scheduled to be bought from on the current date and lists all require items to be purchased in accordance to the calculated order points and/or emergency back orders.
- Non-Scheduled
 - Non-scheduled RPO list contains vendors who are not scheduled to be bought from until a later date but still require items to be purchased in accordance to the calculated order points and/or non-emergency back orders.

$[(\text{Available Qty} + \text{On Order qty} + \text{Incoming Trnsfr Qty}) - (\text{Selected OP} + \text{BO Qty})]$

OP Qty = CDC OP (please look at next slide for OP Calculation)

BO Qty = BO Qty Branch

- If SO is on Hold that qty is not included
- If SO is WIP that qty is not included

On Order Qty = On Order Qty Branch

- If PO Qty is for EBO/DS, qty is not included

Available Qty = Avb Qty at Branch

Incoming Transfer Qty = Will always be 0 since you only have 1 WH

How System Selects OP

Selected OP = Sys OP

If Override = Y (from Prod Catalog OP record)

Then

If User OP > 0

Then Selected OP = User OP.

If Min > 0 and Min > Selected OP

Then Selected OP = Min.

If Max > 0 and Selected OP > Max

Then Selected OP = Max.

If the Stk or Inv flag at the Branch level = N, then OP = 0.

Suggested Qty

If the Item's Stock & Inventory Flags = Yes

If Sugg Qty < Vndr Ignore Below

Then

Sugg. Qty = 0 (Item will not be considered in RPO)

If Sugg Qty > Vndr Ignore Below

Then

If Sugg Qty ≤ Vndr Min Stk

Then

Sugg. Qty = Vendor Min Stk Qty;

If Sugg Qty > Vndr Min Stk

Then

$A = (\text{Sugg Qty} - \text{Vndr Min Qty}) / \text{Vendor Incr Qty}$

Round Up/Down 'A'

$\text{Sugg. Qty} = \text{Vendor Min Stk Qty} + (A * \text{Vndr Increment Qty})$

If either Item's Stock & Inventory Flags = No

Then Sugg Qty = Suggested qty
